Genoua, Feb. 7. N. S.

THE Prince of Monaco is ſhortly expected here from Paris in his way to Rome, with the Character of Ambaſſador from the Moſt Chriſtian King to the Pope. They write from Milan, that the Duke of Savoy having lately made ſome Pretenſions to the Sovereignty of the Lands about Final, the Council there had been extraordinarily aſſembled to conſider thereof, and the Prince of Vaudemont, Governor of Milan, had appointed the Duke de Sifto to go and confer with the Duke of Savoy about this Affair; Theſe Letters add, that ſeveral Regulations were publiſhed at Milan, enforced by very ſevere Penalties, for preventing the Diſorders which uſually happen during the Carnaval; And that the young Prince Charles of Vaudemont was gone from thence to Vienna. We hear from Mondovi, that the Diſorders continue ſtill in that Country, and the number of the Malecontents who have taken up Arms, ſeems to increaſe; That they Plunder the Houſes of ſuch of their Neighbours as will not join with them; That they have had ſeveral Rencounters with the Duke's Forces quarter'd in the Neighbourhood of Mondovi; And that his Royal Highneſs has thereupon ordered a greater number of his Troops to march thither, under the Command of the Governor of Verceil, to ſuppreſs them.

Warſaw, Feb. 28. On the 17th Inſtant was held here a Great Council, in which each Senator in his Place congratulated the King of Poland upon the Concluſion of an Advantagious Peace with the Turks, and the good Succeſs he has had in reſtoring the Publick Tranquillity at home; Then they reſolved, that for the ſettling of the Affairs of the Kingdom, it's neceſſary a General Diet be held, and they left it to the King to appoint the time, which he did for the 29th of May. As for the Buſineſs of Elbing, they appointed a Select Committee to conſider thereof, that their Reſolutions in this Matter may be kept ſecret. The Heer Malachowsky, late Plenipotentiary from this Crown at the Congreſs in Hungary, is daily expected here. The Staroſt of Chelm is appointed to go as the King's Envoy to the Grand Signior. The Emperor's Envoy has notified to the King, the Marriage of the King of the Romans with the Princeſs of Hanouer, and on this occaſion gave a very ſplendid Entertainment, at which were preſent, the Princes Alexander and Conſtantine, Sons to the late King of Poland, the Cardinal Primate, and others of Principal Quality.

Vienna, Feb. 28. The King of the Romans went from hence on the 18th Inſtant Incognito, and lay that night at Burkerſtorf; the next morning he made a Private Viſit to the Queen at Tuln, and returned hither the ſame night. On the 20th, about noon, the Queen of the Romans came to Burkerſtorf, and the King made her another Viſit; She was alſo viſited there by the Arch-Duke Charles, and Prince Joſeph of Lorrain. The 21ſt her Majeſty came to the Caſtle of Eberſtorf, and on the 22d the Emperor and Empreſs, the King of the Romans, the Arch-Duke, the Four Arch-Dutcheſſes, and the Prince of Lorrain, attended by a great number of Perſons of Principal Quality, went to Eberſtorf; The Queen received their Imperial Majeſties at their coming out of their Coach, and offered to kiſs their hands, which they would not ſuffer, and embraced and ſaluted her; They went to the Queens Apartment, where they ſtayed ſome time, and in the afternoon the Emperor and the whole Court returned hither. The 23d was ſpent in preparing every thing for the Queen's Entry: Accordingly the 24th the Queen left Eberſtorf in the morning, and dined at the Palace of Favorita, being attended by Prince Lobkowitz, and the other Officers of her Houſhold. At ſome diſtance from this City ſeveral Tents were pitched, under which the King of the Romans received her, the Cannon round the Town being fired at the ſame time, and their Majeſties continued there till the Perſons who were to attend them in the Entry were placed in order; after which they proceeded in this manner. Firſt marched the Chief Harbinger, with his Four Aſſiſtants; next Eight Troops of Gentlemen of Croatia and Hungary, making in all about 700 Men, Cloathed and Armed after the manner of their own Country, commanded by the Count of Rathiani Ban of Croatia, and Prince Eſterhaſi Palatine of Hungary, and under them by other Perſons of the chiefeſt Quality, who had a great many Servants, and Led-Horſes attending them. Then a Company of the Burghers of this City on Horſeback, with White and Red Feathers on their Hats; The Company of Foreign Traders, conſiſting of about 80 Men beſides their Officers, all in Coats laced with Gold, and with White Feathers in their Hats; The Burghermaſter, with the Chief Inhabitants of this Place, making together about 160 Men, all cloathed in Black, with White Feathers on their Hats; The Eight Companies of Cuiraſſiers raiſed by the States of the Lower Auſtria, making about 700 Men, and commanded by Count Traunt, Land-Marſhal. After theſe came 18 Mules, belonging to the King of the Romans; 6 Led-Horſes of the Arch-Duke's, 10 of the King of the Romans, and 12 of the Emperor's, all with Trappings of Black Velvet richly ſet with Pearls; Several Pages on Horſeback, two of which bore a Crown, and other Marks of Sovereignty; The Lords of the Bedchamber to the Emperor and the King of the Romans, with the Miniſters of State and Officers of the Court, all on Horſeback, attended by their Servants; The Arch-Duke Charles on Horſeback, with the Prince of Lichtenſtein, his High-Steward, on his left hand, followed by the other Officers of the Houſhold; Three Heralds at Arms in their proper Coats; And the Prince of Fundy, Count of Manſfeld Marſhal of the Emperor's Court, on Horſeback, bearing the Sword of State. Then came the King of the Romans cloathed in White Silk upon a White Horſe, under a Canopy born by Eight Councellors of State in their proper Habits. The Heer Rhyngrave, Captain of His Majeſty's Guards, marched on the right ſide of the Canopy; Count Trautſon, Firſt Lord of his Bed-chamber, on the left; and the Prince of Dietrichſtein, his Maſter of the Horſe, behind it. Then came the Queen of the Romans dreſs'd likewiſe all in White, in a very Magnificent Coach drawn by Six Horſes; Over-againſt her ſate the Dutcheſs-Dowager of Hanouer, her Mother; On one ſide of the Coach was on Horſeback the Prince of Lichtenſtein, High-Steward; and behind came the Emperor's Guards of Archers commanded by General Paſſy, and thoſe of the King of the Romans commanded by Count Martinitz. The Queens Coaches, with her Ladies of Honour and her other Servants, cloſed the March. In this manner they proceeded to the Church of the Auguſtin Friers adjoining to
